

The President's message was a silent document.

It was silent on the negro at any rate.

What is to be the destiny of the negro?

The apologists are increasing.

The Washington Post is suffering with a severe attack of wind colic.

It will require two presidents, with the Post included, to make the negro accept such leadership as Kelly Miller and Booker T. Washington.

We have some ds among the white people.

Editor Fortune of the New York Age is a manly and fearless journalist.

We need brave men and men of nerve.

Don't be a toady when you are right.

This is an ordeal through which the negro is passing.

There will be a bright day for the negro soon.

Be honest, true and manly.

What the colored race needs today is a Moses.

Is it best for the negro to be silent?

Be useful citizens and manly in your utterances.

Are the negroes cowards or are they manly?

Don't be alarmed, there will be a day of reckoning.

Speak the truth, be honest and sincere.

It is the coward who cannot speak the truth.

There are millions in this country who will need the help of the negro.

How did you like Editor Fortune's speech?

The Post as well as other papers need apologetic negro leadership.

There are breakers ahead.

Should a race be compromised because we don't want to insult our enemies?

Let us live in hope, the promise land will be reached some day.

Don't forget to express your honest convictions.

Think well of your neighbor, you may ask him a favor yet.

If you want a live paper, read THE BEE.

No one will regret the retirement of Secretary Bliss.

He will do all of his weeping to himself.

No one will weep because he leaves the Cabinet.

If one or two others will go, the country would be in a better condition.

It is the brave man who dares to express his honest convictions.

THE BEE takes the lead, and all others follow.

Send your advertisements to THE BEE. This paper will do you good.

Gray and Costly are running a first class house.

You should speak cordially when you know you are right.

No trimmer can succeed in anything.

A new city Postmaster will be appointed soon.

It will be well for the negro to be independent in politics.

It is not necessary for the colored man to be uneasy.

There is a bright future before him.

Sergeant Daily is the man to be promoted.

He is the best, most active and he most deserving Sergeant on the force.

You should never believe rumors.

The Colored American has at last concluded to stand square on a school trustee candidate.

Who informed our contemporary that Mrs. Terrell is to resign.
